Sunshine Village realizes that there are many more holidays and other special days that clients and employees would like to commemorate. Although we will celebrate some of these at the programs, we understand if any clients do not attend their program on such a day – to partake in observances or celebrations. Employees may use paid time off for such days – and if the employee does not have enough/any paid time off – consideration will be given for unpaid time if it does not negatively impact staffing levels or the agency's operations.
